

Dr. Shashi Merchant

MD (Pediatrics)

Dr. Merchant has a vast experience of treating pediatric patients since 1984. Her special areas of interest include Neonatology and Child Psychology, particularly, behavioral & psychological disorders of children and their management.

Dr. Merchant works closely with Asha Sadan (The Maharashtra State Women's Council Rescue Home for Destitute Children) for the treatment of children with complex medical and social challenges. She is also the Honorary Pediatrician and Trustee, The Helen Keller Institute for the Deaf & Blind and Honorary Pediatrician at the Bal Jeevan Trust.

A recipient of numerous accolades for her good work, some of Dr. Merchant's awards include:

- The Dowager Lady Sitaram Patkar Gold Medal & Prize for the 1st Rank in the University of Bombay
- The Cama Gold Medal and Prize for Surgery
- The Lady Reay Silver Medal and Prize
- The Indirabai Anand Telang Prize
- The M. V. Hazarat Scholarship for Medicine
- The Pandit Bhagwandin Dube Scholarship in Medicine
- The Scholarship of the Medical Women of India Fund of 1883
- The H. H. Sir Jaswantsinghji Limdi Prize in Medicine
- The Pfizer Gold Medal and Post Graduate Medical Award
- Awarded the 3rd Rank in the University of Bombay in the M. D. Pediatrics Examination